

Should I Join?

Do you have anyone you can trust and confide in for solid business advice?

Do you have clearly defined goals for your business as well as individual goals that may indirectly influence your business?

Do you have difficulty making tough business decisions and seek advice from other business professionals?

Are you prepared to solve the unknown challenges that may arise?

Description

The NCC Business Owners Roundtable is comprised of local business owners looking to grow and strengthen their businesses.

The Roundtable is led by Fred Brackmann, a highly regarded facilitator with over 15 years of leadership experience.

Each meeting will include member spotlight discussions, peer-to-peer open dialogues, and educational leadership from keynote speakers.

Benefits of Joining

Group participation allows leaders to make better strategic decisions, improve communication, and focus on developing a higher purpose for their company, its employees, and the community.

Diverse but like-minded leaders unite to generate an environment that is relatable because they are “walking in your shoes” too.

Focused discussion about your own challenges and brainstorming solutions in a confidential atmosphere.

Streamlining your goals both professionally and personally to increase performance and deliver success.

Our Mission

The NCC Business Owners Roundtable was founded to give members a sounding board for issues, opportunities, and tactical ideas.

Within this mission we will focus on leadership development, a culture of trust, as well as creating and authenticating mutual support in a confidential and trusting environment.
